

FULL-TIME SOCIAL WORKER REQUIRED

Villa Colombo Services for Seniors has come to represent much more than just a home for seniors. The creation of Villa Colombo stemmed from a grass-roots movement within the Italian-Canadian community that put into action, the desire to construct a culturally and linguistically sensitive residence for the elderly. Today, the organization remains unique in the care it provides to the 391 residents that call Villa Colombo home. It has expanded its reach into the Community, providing a multitude of ethnically enriched services for seniors in the Italian-Canadian community.
