MARINO TOPPAN AND PAOLA BREDA

of the

ITALIAN FALLEN WORKERS MEMORIAL PROJECT

Graciously hosted by VILLA CHARITIES

And joined by supporters and contributors
from the community and from the families of the fallen, invite you to join with them in celebrating the completion of a book outlining the full story of the Italian immigration to Canada, including the still unknown and unrecognized history of the Italian Fallen Workers.

Join us to discover this new piece of Canadian history,
and some other yet unknown history,
uncovered after decades of research by Marino Toppan,
and now immortalized forever in

The Italian Fallen Workers Memorial Wall
on the campus of Villa Charities, and in this new book, Land of Triumph and Tragedy: Voices of the Italian Fallen Workers.

Hear the recounting of our immigration history through their voices,
a rich history uncovered by their stories.

Thursday, 23 May 2019, 7 pm.

Joseph D. Carrier Art Gallery, Columbus Centre.

RSVP: info@ItalianFallenWorkersMemorial.com

What has been done in this project is both unique and trailblazing. A new chapter has been written in Canadian history, and as such, Toppan and Breda have made a significant contribution to the cultural life of this country. – VINCENZO PIETROPAOLO.
