31.	Vermin	The Tenant shall keep the Rental Unit free from vermin and pests. In the event that vermin or pest control treatment is necessary in the Rental Unit, the Tenant shall carry out all protocols for preparation of the Rental Unit for such treatment as directed by the Landlord or its vermin or pest control contractor, and the Tenant shall be responsible for the cost of any fees or charges incurred by the Landlord or charged by its vermin or pest control contractor as a result of the Tenant's failure to adequately comply with such preparation protocols including any refusal to permit vermin or pest control treatment in the Rental Unit . The Tenant shall not refuse entry into the Rental Unit by the Landlord or its vermin or pest control contractor for purposes of treating the Rental Unit for the eradication of vermin or pests in the event that vermin or pest control treatment is required in the Rental Unit as a result of any willful or negligent conduct of the Tenant, an occupant or any person permitted in the Rental Unit by the Tenant or an occupant, then the Tenant is responsible for the cost of such vermin or pest control treatment, as charged by the Landlord vermin or pest control contractor.

32.	Water	The water shall not be left running unless in actual use in the apartment.
33.	Water Apparatus	The water closets and other water apparatus shall not be used for any purpose other than those for which they are constructed and no sweepings, garbage, rubbish, rags, ashes or other substance shall be thrown in the water closets and other apparatus. The Tenant will be responsible for any damage resulting from a breach of this rule.
34.	Windows & Heating	Tenants must observe strict care not to allow windows and doors to remain open so as to admit rain or snow or so as to risk the freezing of plumbing, heating or other facilities. The Tenant will be responsible for the cost of repairing or replacing such damaged radiators and pipes together with any other damage to the premises or property of others resulting from a breach of this rule.
35.	Further Rules	The Tenant understands and agree that the Rules are in addition to and not in place of the terms and covenants contained in the Tenancy Agreement. Furthermore, the Tenant agrees that the Landlord is entitled to alter, amend and/or expand upon these Rules at any time and from time to time. The Tenant agrees to comply with these Rules and cause their guests to comply with these Rules, as the Landlord may alter, amend and/or expand upon them from time to time.

ANIMAL POLICY

The Tenant is responsible for the animal's actions at all times and agree to the following terms and conditions:

To keep their animal(s) under control at all times.

The animal shall not disturb neighbours or other residents, regardless of whether the animal is inside or outside of the unit.

To keep their animal restrained, but not tethered, when it is outside their dwelling.

To adhere to municipal by-laws which may also include leash and licensing requirements.

To only use designated areas for animal waste and to clean up after their animal and dispose of their animal's waste properly and within a quick time parameter

To not leave food or water for their animal or any other animal outside their dwelling where it may attract other animals.

To provide their animal with an identification tag, if applicable.

That any damage to the exterior or interior of the premises, grounds, flooring, walls, trim, finish, tiles, carpeting, or any stains, etc., caused by the animal will be the full financial responsibility of the resident and that Tenant agrees to pay all costs involved in the restoration to its original condition. If because of any such stains, etc., said damage is such that it cannot be removed, then Tenant hereby agrees to pay the full expense of replacement.

That, if there is reasonable cause to believe an emergency situation exists with respect to the animal, and if efforts to contact the Tenant and emergency caretaker are unsuccessful, the Landlord may contact the local animal control authority and assist its staff in entering the Tenant's apartment. Examples of an emergency situation include suspected abuse, abandonment, fire or other disaster, or any prolonged disturbance. If it becomes necessary for the animal to be boarded, any and all costs incurred will be the sole responsibility of the Tenant.

To indemnify, hold harmless, and defend the Landlord against all liability, judgments, expenses (including attorney's fees), or claims by third parties for any injury to any person or damage to property of any kind whatsoever caused by the Tenant's animal(s).
